REF - RÉSEAU EUROMED FRANCE

The REF is a network bringing together 36 French civil society organisations (associations, collectives and unions) that are active in the Mediterranean. The actions of the REF are pluri-thematic and its members cover a wide range of key fields: youth and education, art and culture, migration and diaspora, social and solidarity economy, environment, human rights, research etc. Convinced that in the region, peace can only be achieved on the basis of respect for human rights, gender equality and the right of peoples to self-determination, the REF provides a space for action, exchange of practices and discussion for French civil society actors active in the Mediterranean.

AGENCE FRANÇAISE DE DÉVELOPPEMENT (AFD)

The Agence française de développement (AFD) Group funds, supports and accelerates the transition to a fairer and more sustainable world. We build shared solutions with our partners, with and for southern populations. Our teams carry out more than 4,000 projects in France's overseas departments and territories and another 115 countries and in territories in crisis, for the common good – climate, biodiversity, peace, gender equality, education or even health.

Dialogue with civil society organisations is at the heart of AFD Group's action and concerns all of its fields of intervention. Both formal and informal, this dialogue is expressed at institutional and strategic levels, as well as at the operational and research levels, thus reflecting the wide variety of forms of partnership developed.

Civil Society Organisations Division

THE FORUM DES MONDES MÉDITERRANEENS

Focused on Mediterranean civil societies, the Forum des Mondes Méditerranéens was organised upon the initiative of the President of the French Republic on 7 and 8 February 2022 in Marseille (France). It was aimed at promoting projects, analyses and proposals carried out by field actors engaged in the countries of the Mediterranean region revolving around 5 issues: Environment and sustainable development / Training, knowledge and mobility / Inclusion / Culture and heritage / Economy, entrepreneurship and digital innovation. It enabled to recall the great need to “create networks, build bridges and launch new initiatives aimed at youth and civil society”, to build a common vision of the Mediterranean towards Horizon 2030.

The Forum revolved around several main components:

- Round tables, conferences, workshops, enabling discussion on current Mediterranean issues. This dynamic was led by several partners: South Region, the Municipality of Marseille, ...
- A process of youth consultation which allowed the drafting of a white paper of proposals intended for the President of the Republic. It was coordinated by Expertise France.
- A Projects Village, central space of the Forum devoted to the promotion and inter-knowledge of civil societies, enabling many project leaders to present their initiatives, built around an Agora, a multimedia space, time for inter-associative speed-meetings and stands dedicated to promoting projects, co-organised by the REF and Agence française de Développement (AFD).

The Forum des Mondes méditerranéens mobilized a true diversity of actors, but also the general public of Marseille. 3283 people were present at the Parc Chanot on Monday 7 February, and 2837 on Tuesday 8, with more than 300 guests coming from the southern Shore.

THE PROJECTS VILLAGE

Civil society organisations play a crucial role in socio-economic development, cultural openness, promotion of social cohesion and peace in their respective countries. These civil societies are often focused upon their close networks and territories, without relations with other local actors working on similar or complementary themes in other countries.

Nevertheless, they represent significant potential for contributing to forging links between our countries, revolving around values and shared, concrete and forward-looking projects. Supporting these dynamics of consultation and development of partnerships seems more than necessary today in order to combat the multiple fractures that Mediterranean countries are faced with. Spaces for networking and inter-knowledge, at the Euro-Mediterranean regional level, are today essential for bringing civil societies together and consolidating links of solidarity between Mediterranean countries.

Co-organised by the REF – French Euromed Network and the Agence française de développement this Forum was a unique space for networking and promoting the voices of civil societies engaged in the Mediterranean. It namely contributed to:

- Give the civil society organisations present a broad visibility and audience among the general public and institutional actors
- Allow them to build relationships, find convergences, develop relationships with other CSOs in the region and thus strengthen the inter-associative network at the regional level
- Put them in contact with funding bodies, which is a major challenge for all non-profit actors in the field for whom access to public and private funding is crucial
- Provide them with the opportunity to meet and work with their own partners

A DIRECTORY OF PROJECTS

This Directory of Projects includes the 92 projects selected to be presented in the framework of the Projects Village held on 7 and 8 February in Marseille. Available in 3 languages, it will serve as a useful database for further exchanges and networking among project leaders present during the Forum, and more broadly.

The projects have been classified according to the 5 themes at the heart of the Forum des Mondes méditerranéens:

- 1/ ENVIRONMENT, BIODIVERSITY AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT
- 2/ EDUCATION, TRAINING AND MOBILITY
- 3/ INCLUSION AND SOLIDARITY
- 4/ CULTURE AND HERITAGE
- 5/ ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND DIGITAL INNOVATION

This Directory is updatable and intended to be enriched with new projects, identified and promoted within the framework of the coming editions of the Forum des Mondes méditerranéens.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The REF – French Euromed Network and the Agence française de développement wish to warmly thank all the representatives of Mediterranean civil societies for their contribution to the success of this Projects Village. The organisers regret the absence of some participants whose project had been selected.

The REF also wishes to thank all its member organisations, especially the Ligue de l'enseignement des Bouches-du-Rhône as well as the association Engagé·e·s & Déterminé·e·s for their precious support, but also the members of its team, for the quality of their work and commitment.

TAKATOAT

TAKATOAT COLLECTIVE

JORDAN

It is a group of young feminist activists from across Jordan who believes in the power of feminist awareness and solidarity to change narratives revolving around gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls. Takatoat was founded in response to the alarming number of horrific feminicides that have taken place in the country and the persistent gender gaps in legal, social, economic, cultural and political spheres.

TRAINING OF DETENTION CENTRES AND LOCAL AUTHORITIES ON INTERNATIONAL CONVENTIONS THAT PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF MIGRANTS AND ASYLUM SEEKERS

AMAN ORGANIZATION AGAINST DISCRIMINATION
LIBYA

This project aims to promote the culture of protecting the rights of migrants and asylum seekers in Libya by raising awareness among local stakeholders, migrant communities and civil activists. The project includes various activities such as training courses for detention centres and local authorities in cities (Alkufra, Morzuq, Qatron, Obari) on international conventions that protect the rights of migrants and asylum seekers. Workshops are also organised with civil activists with the objective of improving their knowledge of relevant laws and conventions, in order to prepare them to protect and defend the rights of migrants and asylum seekers in their region.
